It has been a privilege for my wife Stephanie and me to be able to call Mark and Ora our friends and colleagues. I have worked with both of them for a number of years and through that opportunity we have developed a friendship based on admiration, trust and affection. With their spirit of genuine altruism they are wonderful role models for the young and not so young. And when you need advice—whether personal or strategic—Mark and Ora are the kind of people who immediately come to mind. I have frequently sought their wise counsel.

There are a few people you meet in life where you can honestly say your life is better for having known them. For Stephanie and me—and I am sure many others—Mark and Ora are that rare breed.

Mark and Ora, congratulations on your well-deserved award from the Hasten Hebrew Academy of Indianapolis.

With warmest regards,

D. Craig Brater
Dean and Walter J. Daly Professor
