To Our Friends at Schechter LI:

RAVSAK joins with our member, the Schechter School of Long Island, in wishing a hearty mazal tov to this year's honorees: Susan and Kourosch Adhami; "Coach" Alan Brent; Jodie and Mathew Fineman; and Jill and Randy Kiewe! A day school is strengthened and sustained thanks to the talents, contributions and generosity of its numerous stakeholders. Schechter of Long Island is truly fortunate--and worthy--to have so many outstanding and dedicated supporters.

RAVSAK is proud to have Schechter of Long Island as a member school and an active participant in our high school programs. The students' outstanding efforts in our international competition in halakhic learning, the Moot Beit Din, testify to the strength of the school's education and faculty. Schechter Long Island students have consistently achieved among the top results in the competition, demonstrating the school's outstanding education both in Jewish studies and in critical thinking.

Schechter Long Island is one of the 132 schools in RAVSAK's network of Jewish day schools worldwide. Day schools keep the beacon of Jewish education, community, leadership and commitment burning bright. Each school is a treasure, contributing to the local Jewish community and general population in countless ways. RAVSAK is honored to partner with and support our members through field-wide peer networks, an annual conference, programs for lay and professional leaders, an annual conference, and our quarterly journal of Jewish education HaYidion. Schools like Schechter Long Island offer the best investment we have for a strong Jewish present and future.

Behatzlachah! Best wishes for success to our friends and colleagues at the Schechter School of Long Island.

B'vracha,

Dr. Marc Kramer
Executive Director
