Dear Friends,

Please accept my warmest greetings and congratulations as you gather for the Schechter School of Long Island's Annual Gala. I am grateful for the opportunity to recognize the fine work of your school and tonight's honorees on this wonderful occasion.

Since its inception, in 1967, the Schechter School of Long Island has been a source of premier education for the community's children. The school has continuously provided a space for spiritual, intellectual, physical, and social growth of children to further the mission of Solomon Schechter, the Conservative Judaism founder, that "Judaism permeate the whole of your life." The Schechter of Long Island provides a loving, engaging atmosphere where students can reach their personal and spiritual best.

Furthermore, I would like to congratulate tonight's accomplished honorees: Susan and Kourosch Adhami; "Coach" Alan Brent; Jodie and Mathew Fineman; and Jill and Randy Kiewe. The efforts and tremendous successes of these fine individuals inspire a love of learning, and ignite a child's inner spark through Jewish values, integrity and faith.

On behalf of all New Yorkers, I thank you for your hard work and commitment to the Long Island Community. I am confident that the Schechter School of Long Island and tonight's honorees will continue their valuable and commendable work on behalf of the Long Island and Jewish communities for many more years to come. Best wishes for a wonderful evening.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Schumer
United States Senator
